September 17, 2020

Complaint: The Office of Police Oversight received an anonymous complaint stating the following:

“Police officer [REDACTED] “liked” a picture circulating on Facebook in support of Kenosha murder suspect Kyle Rittenhouse and killing “only” felons. This is a disgusting mindset and completely inappropriate for any police officer to have. This man should not be representative of Austin or APD.”

This notice of formal complaint is a request for Internal Affairs to initiate an investigation in order to determine if the employee conduct is within compliance of APD policy, Civil Service Rules, and Municipal Civil Service Rules.
