

OFFICE OF POLICE OVERSIGHT

NOTICE OF COMPLAINT

June 16, 2022

ICMS #: 2022-0512

On June 13, 2022, the OPO received a phone complaint.

The complainant alleges: She and her mother both have mental issues. They got into an argument, and she her mother would not leave so the complainant called APD. When APD arrived, the complainant explained her mother was not a resident of the apartment and was only visiting for two weeks and she wanted her to leave her apartment. APD questioned her like she was the problem and refused to remove her mother. The officers put her in a separate room from her mother. Officer [REDACTED] (badge # [REDACTED]) spoke to the mother and officer [REDACTED] (badge # [REDACTED]) spoke to her. They did not deescalate the situation and refused to remove her mother. Officer [REDACTED] told officer [REDACTED] to get the complainant's son's name and make a report on her. She felt the officers were being biased and making her look like a bad mother. If the report comes back worse than what it actually was, she is going to have to file a lawsuit. Her problem with the responding officers is that they did not try to deescalate the situation by removing her mother from the Apartment.

This notice of complaint is a request for Internal Affairs to initiate an investigation to determine if the employee conduct is within compliance of APD policy, Civil Service Rules, and Municipal Civil Service Rules.
