Complaint: Complainant, Mr. [REDACTED], filed an online complaint alleging the following:

“APD has again targeted me, made up a random charge that I was not aware of. Filed a charge not including myself or my attorneys. No notice. Then filed a warrant and initiated it when I was lawfully involved in filming them in public, a Free Speech and Free Press exercise. I would like to file a complaint as this makes several similar arrests while filming. This is the last time. This is illegal and targeting me is wrong. Victimless crimes and charged in police retaliation. Which itself is criminal. I want [REDACTED] and the other officers involved to be investigated fully. For these are the bad cops in [REDACTED] that I receive complaints from. Now that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] is gone. They also were bad cops. So is [REDACTED]. A gang of bad cops. And then my property was stolen and a more. A death threat by the City agents. While I was in jail. In broad daylight. [REDACTED] has a history of bullying me and targeting me and others: [REDACTED]. I believe I have reported him before. If not I should have. He was excited to arrest me, the crew leader [REDACTED] was taking pictures and excited to see me to retaliate as well. Here's more on [REDACTED]. He has cyber-stalked, slandered, harassed and targeted me including taking pictures of me with his private cell phone and body cam. As well as telling me twice to fuck off and shut the fuck up, as well as assaulting me on e riverside dr. Here is one incident: [REDACTED]. He has also released video on youtube of my arrest praising the APD for targeting me for protected constitutional exercises. Please also forward my complaint to Public Works.”

This notice of formal complaint is a request for Internal Affairs to initiate an investigation in order to determine if the employee conduct is within compliance of APD policy, Civil Service Rules, and Municipal Civil Service Rules.
