

Sentiment	Paper	Digital
The local government SHOULD request and use public feedback when writing rules.	82%	63%
I WOULD like my city's body-worn camera and dashboard camera program to include more community input.	74%	59%
Community involvement POSITIVELY IMPACTS government accountability.	77%	63%
Police department rules SHOULD provide clearer definitions and guidelines when laws are unclear.	85%	66%
The Austin Police Department's rules SHOULD be revised to provide officers with clearer instructions for when they must stop recording audio and video with their cameras.	83%	62%
Police officers SHOULD be required to acknowledge their use of body-worn cameras and dashboard cameras in a police report.	79%	58%
The Austin Police Department SHOULD provide instructions for officers to use when telling community members that their interaction is being recorded.	77%	54%
The Austin Police Department's rules SHOULD require supervisors to make sure dashboard cameras and body-worn cameras are in working condition and being used correctly.	87%	63%